

Cody Proudfoot

Consultant

Education

Michigan State University, BA with high honors in Public Policy and a minor in Economics

Michigan State University, MPP

Position with Firm

2018–present Consultant. Conducts research and analysis, writes reports, and facilitates stakeholder meetings for the energy and environment team. Manages grants and provides support for the Great Lakes Fishery Trust, which PSC manages and staffs. Performs data analysis, assists with economic impact and contribution studies, and supports other data needs at the firm. Supports project management by collaborating with staff, managing assigned tasks, and ensuring high-quality project deliverables for clients.

Previous Professional Experience

2015–2018 Student Assistant, Michigan Rehabilitation Services, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, Lansing, Michigan. Worked with the program innovation and policy teams to review federal legislation and facilitate implementation of new rules and regulations. Assisted with database systems management, including field assistance, data analysis, new employee training, and data reporting.

2016–2017 Undergraduate Research Assistant, Michigan State University, Department of Political Science, Lansing, Michigan. Conducted research on judicial influence, voting behavior and influences, as well as statements of administration policy.

Honors

- Michigan State University high honors
- Michigan State University Honors College graduate
- Michigan State University Outstanding Senior Award