

Todd O'Grady

Director of Outreach, Michigan Saves

Position with Firm

2012–present Director of Outreach, Michigan Saves. Serves as the director of outreach for Michigan Saves, a multimillion-dollar energy-efficiency loan program targeting homes, businesses, and public institutions. Coordinates with utility companies, trade associations, financial partners, and other key stakeholders to implement and promote Michigan Saves statewide. Handles recruitment and training of contractors and quality assurance of energy-efficiency projects.

Previous Professional Experience

2009–2014 Owner, Efficient NRG Consultants, Brighton, Michigan. Performed firm's strategic planning to map future projects, customers, and goals. Created and implemented energy assessments and audits for statewide residential, business, and agricultural locations.

2009–2012 Business Development Coordinator, Building Science Academy LLC, Sparta, Michigan. Coordinated with partners, trade associations, equipment vendors, and contractors on energy-efficiency training and quality assurance.

2008–2009 Weatherization, Building, and Construction Instructor, Mott Community College, Flint, Michigan.

1997–2007 Building Trades and Earth Science Teacher and Internship/Co-op Coordinator, Kensington Woods High School, Howell, Michigan. Planned and created Kensington Woods High School's first building trades class for alternative education students. Developed and administered curriculum to students in grades nine through 12.

Education Wayne State University, studies in Geology and Secondary Education
Michigan State University, Agricultural Energy Auditing Certification and Urban Planning Certification
Building Performance Institute, Building Analyst Certification

Activities

- Founding Member of Michigan Energy Efficiency Contractors Association Board of Directors, 2013 to present
- Member of Great Lakes Renewable Energy Association Board of Directors, 2011 to present; President, 2011–2014
- Member of WorkSkills Corp. Board of Directors, 2010–2014